PCA is proud to recognize cattle producers who have made a positive impact upon the sustainability of the Pennsylvania Beef Industry through their significant contributions, and through use and implementations of programs such as animal performance evaluations, best management practices and Beef Quality Assurance Programs.

The purpose of these PCA BQA Awards is to celebrate the efforts and hard work of the Pennsylvania cattle industry and recognize those who have devoted their careers to preserving and improving production practices.

Nominating person/group should submit a letter of why applicant is being nominated.

Note: Nominees do not need to be members. On top of winning the award recognition, winners will receive a one-year free membership to PCA.

Please describe the achievements and contributions of the individual/operation you wish to nominate. Be sure to include:
-Details and history of the operation, including date established
-How does the operation embody BQA standards & techniques?
-What contributions has the operation made to the community/industry?

Any individual, group, or organization is eligible to nominate one individual/farm who raises or feeds cattle. Individuals and families may not nominate themselves. However, we expect nominees will be involved in the preparation of the application in order to accurately describe the operation's sustainable practices.

- ☐ Check the box if you are interested in pursuing the National Award nomination through NCBA.
